

Classes and Activities for Groups, 2010

Class	Age Range	Number of participants	Days/times offered	Cost
Fish School: Discover what makes a fish a fish and other amazing adaptations of these animals to their environment! Class includes a scavenger hunt among the exhibits	5 years to Adult (Ideal for school groups, home school groups or scout troops)	15 to 40 people	Monday through Friday	$6/person
Aquarium After Dark: An after-dark flashlight search of the exhibits emphasizing the differences between the nocturnal reef and the diurnal reef and its inhabitants	5 years to Adult (Great for school groups and scout troops)	20 to 55 people	Tuesday to Friday Evenings, after sunset	$12/person
Marine Munchies: Get a private, exclusive tour of the Aquarium after closing. Includes peeks Behind the Scenes and animal feedings. Watch the octopus open a jar and a variety of other animals eat dinner. Participants will also feed fish and invertebrates.	5 years to Adult (Perfect for scout troops, family groups, etc.)	5 to 15 people in English or Japanese	Monday afternoon, 4:15 PM	$175 flat fee
Special Presentations: (On a variety of topics i.e.: The Science of Coral Reefs, Hawaiian Shoreline and Reef Communities, Highlights of the Waikiki Aquarium)	6 years to Adult (Works for school groups, clubs, community groups, etc.)	15 to 50 people	Weekday afternoons	$50 to $75 per presentation

Classes and activities for groups are scheduled around the regularly scheduled school and community programs. Call about specific dates and times and to check staff and facility availability.

Call 440-9007 for more information or look on the website:

www.waquarium.org